Mr Williams' Message

Tēnā koutou e te whānau,

It's hard to believe this is our final newsletter for 2025. The year has certainly flown by, filled with plenty of learning, fun, and memorable moments. This week we acknowledged our Learners of the Term and our Manaakitanga Cup recipients at assembly, celebrating those who consistently display our RICH values. Our teams have also enjoyed end-of-year celebrations, with Pōhutukawa and Tōtara heading to the cinema to watch Zootopia 2 as a finale to our Mana unit, and Kauri enjoying a fun day together today.

As we reach the end of the year, it's also a time to pause, reflect, and offer sincere thanks to the many people who help make Pukekohe Hill School such a special place. Ngā mihi nui to our School Board. We are incredibly fortunate to have such a knowledgeable, steady, and skilled group guiding our kura. Thank you to both the current and previous Board for their leadership and commitment.

A big thank you also to Kylie, Sonia and our wonderful PTA team. Their generosity, creativity, and willingness to give their time make a significant difference to the experiences our tamariki enjoy. Their mahi is deeply appreciated.

Finally, to our staff and students. You are the life and heartbeat of our kura. Our staff bring such dedication, creativity, and aroha to their work every single day, shaping a learning environment where our tamariki feel supported, challenged, and valued. To our students, thank you for the curiosity, enthusiasm, and sense of fun you bring to our school. Your willingness to give things a go, to show kindness, and to look after one another is what makes Pukekohe Hill such a vibrant and fun place to be.

As we head into the festive season, I wish all our whānau a happy and relaxing Christmas break. We hope this time will be filled with laughter, connection, and plenty of moments that fill your cup. Have a safe and refreshing holiday, and we look forward to welcoming everyone back in 2026, ready for another great year of learning together.

Meri Kirihimete me ngā manaakitanga o te wā.

Christmas Ideas

When wrapping gifts use:

- Newspaper or maps
- Bags & boxes that you have around the house - they don't need to be holiday theme!
- Material bags & ribbons - you can find ribbon at opp shops!
- Pillow cases - tie with a ribbon to look like it's from Santa!
- Use material or burlap as wrapping paper - you can also look at opp shops.
- Decorate with ornaments, leaves or herbs for a personal & natural touch
- Reuse last year's cards w/ blank backs and cut up for tags
- Find askets at the opp shops for hampers
- Wrap in scarves or pashminas

Give to charity

- Declutter and donate lightly used gifts, homewares, toys or toiletries to charities like Woven Earth (read how EnviroNZ donated to them this year)
- Donate toys, meals or treats to families in need like ChristmasBox.co.nz or Kindess.org.nz/joystore

You can also decorate sustainably

- Create a tree using driftwood and hand sewn ornaments with left over fabric or felt (see above)
- Use last year's ribbons and hang on your tree or mantle
- Find decorations at opp shops
- Use a living tree or a cut off - one that lives with you all year that you decorate for the holidays

Little deeds can mean a lot.
How will you live a bit more green this year?
